Its beneficial effects are due to the fact that it is the only remedy which promotes internal cleanliness, without debilitating the organs on which it acts. TO CUTICURA

Itching, Scaling Scalp Humor was Making It All Fall Out—Two Doctors Could Not Stop the Trouble - Niece Advised Using Cuticura.

CURED HER SCALP AND MADE HAIR GROW AGAIN

"My mother used to have a very bad humor on her head which the doctors called an eczema, and for it I had two different doctors. Her head was very sore and her hair nearly all fell out in spite of what they both did. One day her niece came in to see her and they were speaking of how her hair was falling out and the doctors did it no good. She says, 'Aunt, why don't you try Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment?' Mother did and they helped her, so she soon began bathing with the Cuticura Soap and anointing with the Cuticura Cintment, and in six months' time the itching, burning and scaling of her head was over and her hair began growing. To-day she feels very much in debt to Cuticura Soap and Ointment for the fine head of hair she has for an old lady seventy-four years old.
"In regard to my own case, mine was an eczema something like hers. It was in my feet. As soon as the cold weather came my feet would itch and burn and then they would crack open and bleed. Then I thought I would flow to my mother's friends, Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. I did for four or five winters and now my feet are as smooth asany one's. Ellsworth Dunham, Hiram, Me., Sept. 30, 1909."

What Barnum Said of Cuticura.

P. T. Barnum, the famous circus man, once wrote: "I have had the Cuticura Remedies among the contents of my medicine chect with my shows for the last three seasons, and I can cheerfully certify that they were very effective in every case which called for their use,"

Discharged Negro Soldiers.

Company Mascot Romps Ahead of Men at Shooting Up of Village.

Washington, D. C., March 28,—On a big black dog may depend the decision as to whether or not any of the negro soldiers discharged as a result of the famous shooting up of Brownsville, Tex., are to be allowed to re-enlist in the army of the United States. Such a dog is said to have bounded along ahead of the raiders who went on their death-dealing mission on August 12, 1996.

This obscure bit of testimony was brought to the fore to-day at the sitting of the military court of in quiry created by law to determine if any of the discharged soldiers should be permitted to re-enlist. Captain Charles R. Howland, recorder of the court, asserted that this dog belongs to Company B, of the Twenty-fifth Regiment, and scampered along ahead of the raiders, as he said, with whom it came in daily contact.

For six hours Captain Howland addiressed the court in summarizing the testimony of the Brownsville affray.

The tenor of the recorder's address throughout the day was that the discharged soldiers shot up the town. His story of the dog was only one of the points marshaled by the army officer in support of his contention that the soldiers were guilty of the crime that has been laid at the door of clizens of the town.

Odin described it as a "large black dog."

"This big black dog, which has heretofore been neglected in the case." said the recorder, "enters into it with very illuminating effect, because not a half hour before he was standing watch at the gate of the post and keeping the children out who were going home from the Cowan party.

"There are generally dogs about where soldiers are gathered, and in this particular case we find that there was a large black dog with B Company, as shown by reference to Captain Macklin's testimony. The dog which Mr. Odin saw and which he felt was a mad dog that they were trying to shoot was merely the B Company dog, running ahead of the soldiers, with whom he came in delly contact."

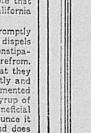

Stress was laid by the recorder on the testimony that the firing that night was done by volleys. An attempt by the testimony that the firing that night was done by volleys. An attempt by civilians to fire by volleys, he contended would not have been successful.

A study of the trajectory of the bullets fired, as made by experts for the court of inquiry. Captain Howland said, demonstrated that there was firing from the porches of D and B barracks, and probably C, and much firing from the post between the barracks and the walls.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Washinston, D. C., March 28.—A vigarous effort to keep W. T. Hopkins from being confirmed as nostmaster at Newport News is being made, but no charges have been filed with the Senate Committee on Post-Offices and Post Roads up to this time. The confirmation is held up until the matter can be carefully considered. The friends of Hopkins say that the opposition will not amount to anything serious.
